LIBYA-UNITED KINGDOM

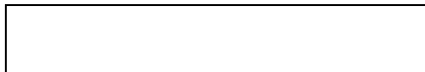

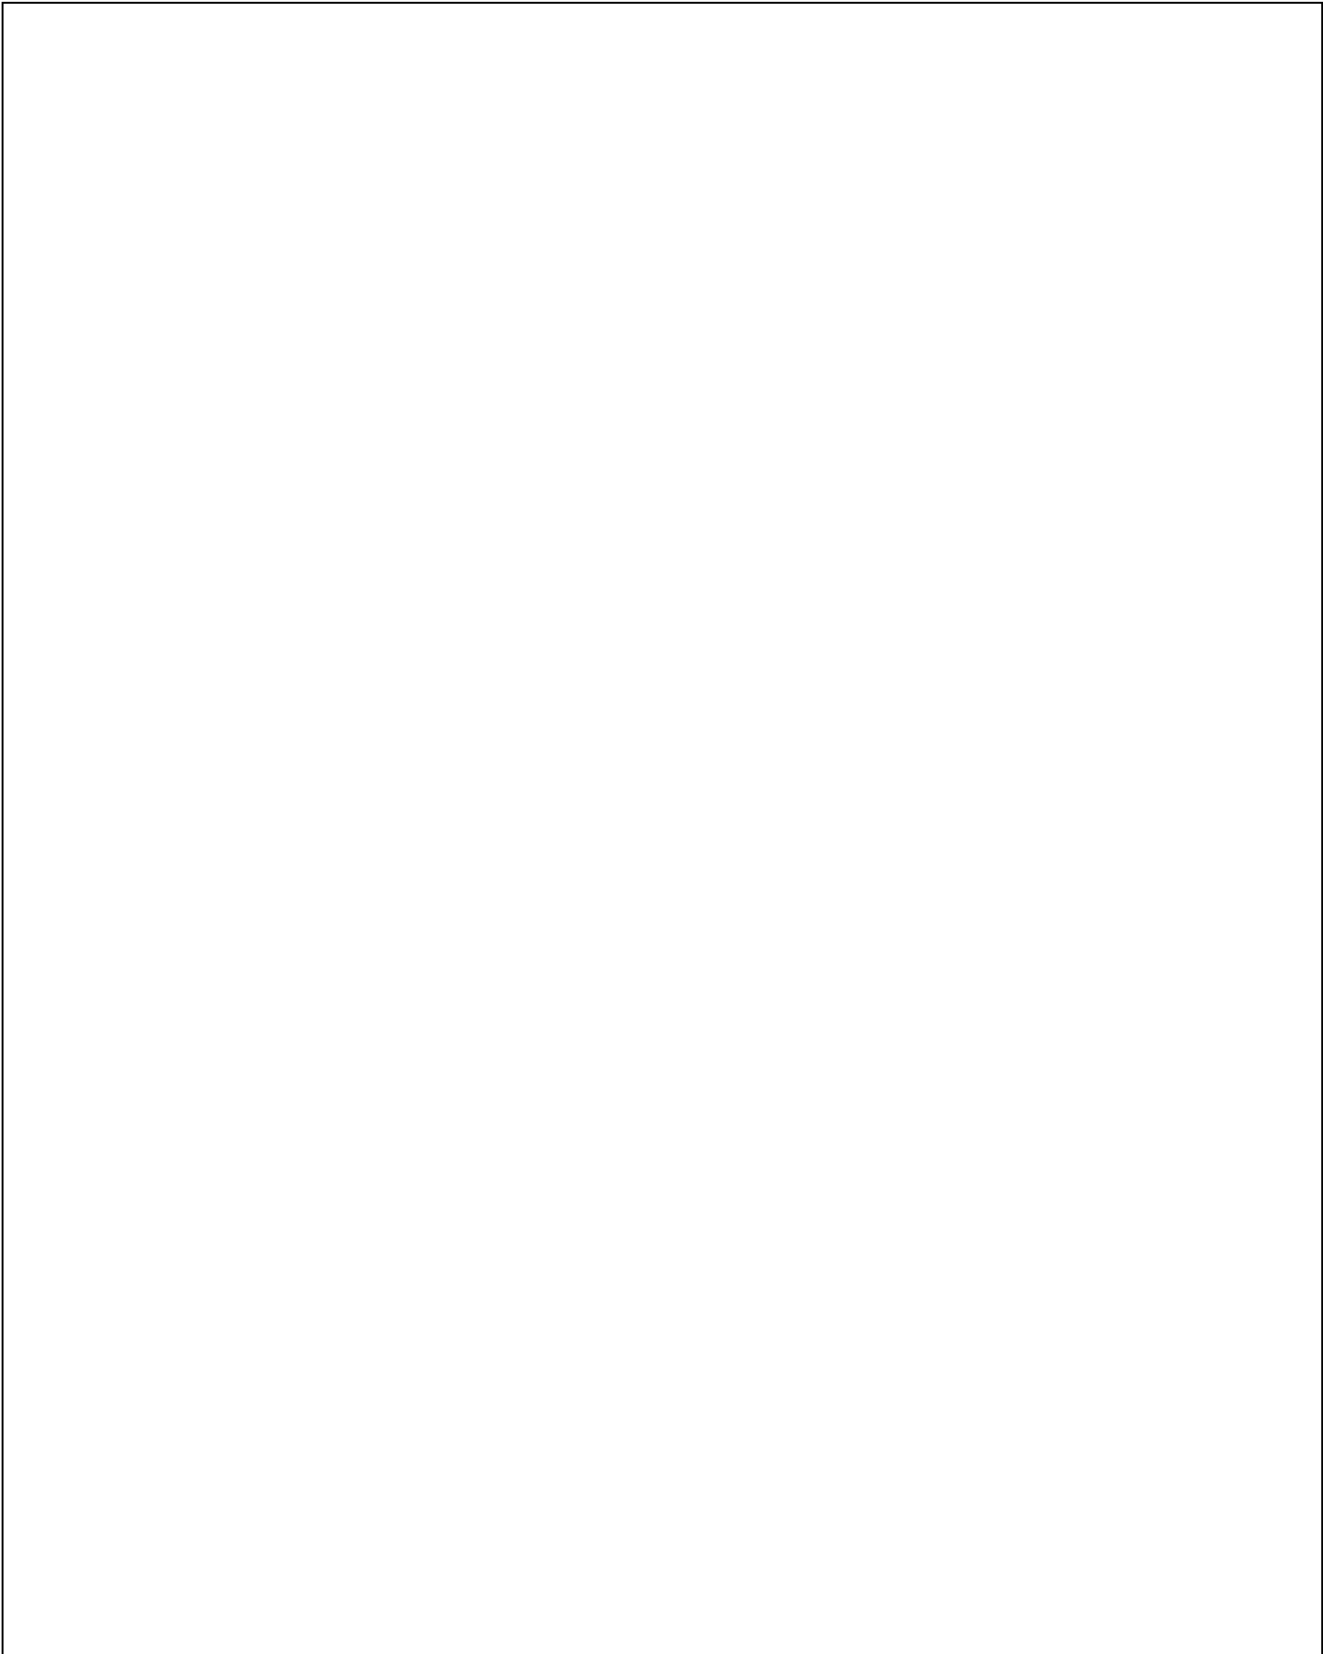

COMPENSATION FOR 1984 SHOOTING

AS PART OF LIBYA'S EFFORTS TO CONVINCE BRITAIN TO RESTORE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS, TRIPOLI RECENTLY PAID COMPENSATION FOR THE APRIL 1984 SLAYING OF BRITISH POLICEWOMAN YVONNE FLETCHER. FLETCHER WAS SHOT BY A MEMBER OF THE LIBYAN PEOPLE'S BUREAU IN LONDON WHILE POLICING AN ANTI-QADHAFI PROTEST, AND HER DEATH LED TO THE SEVERING OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

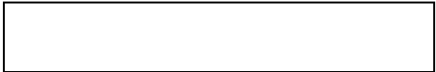

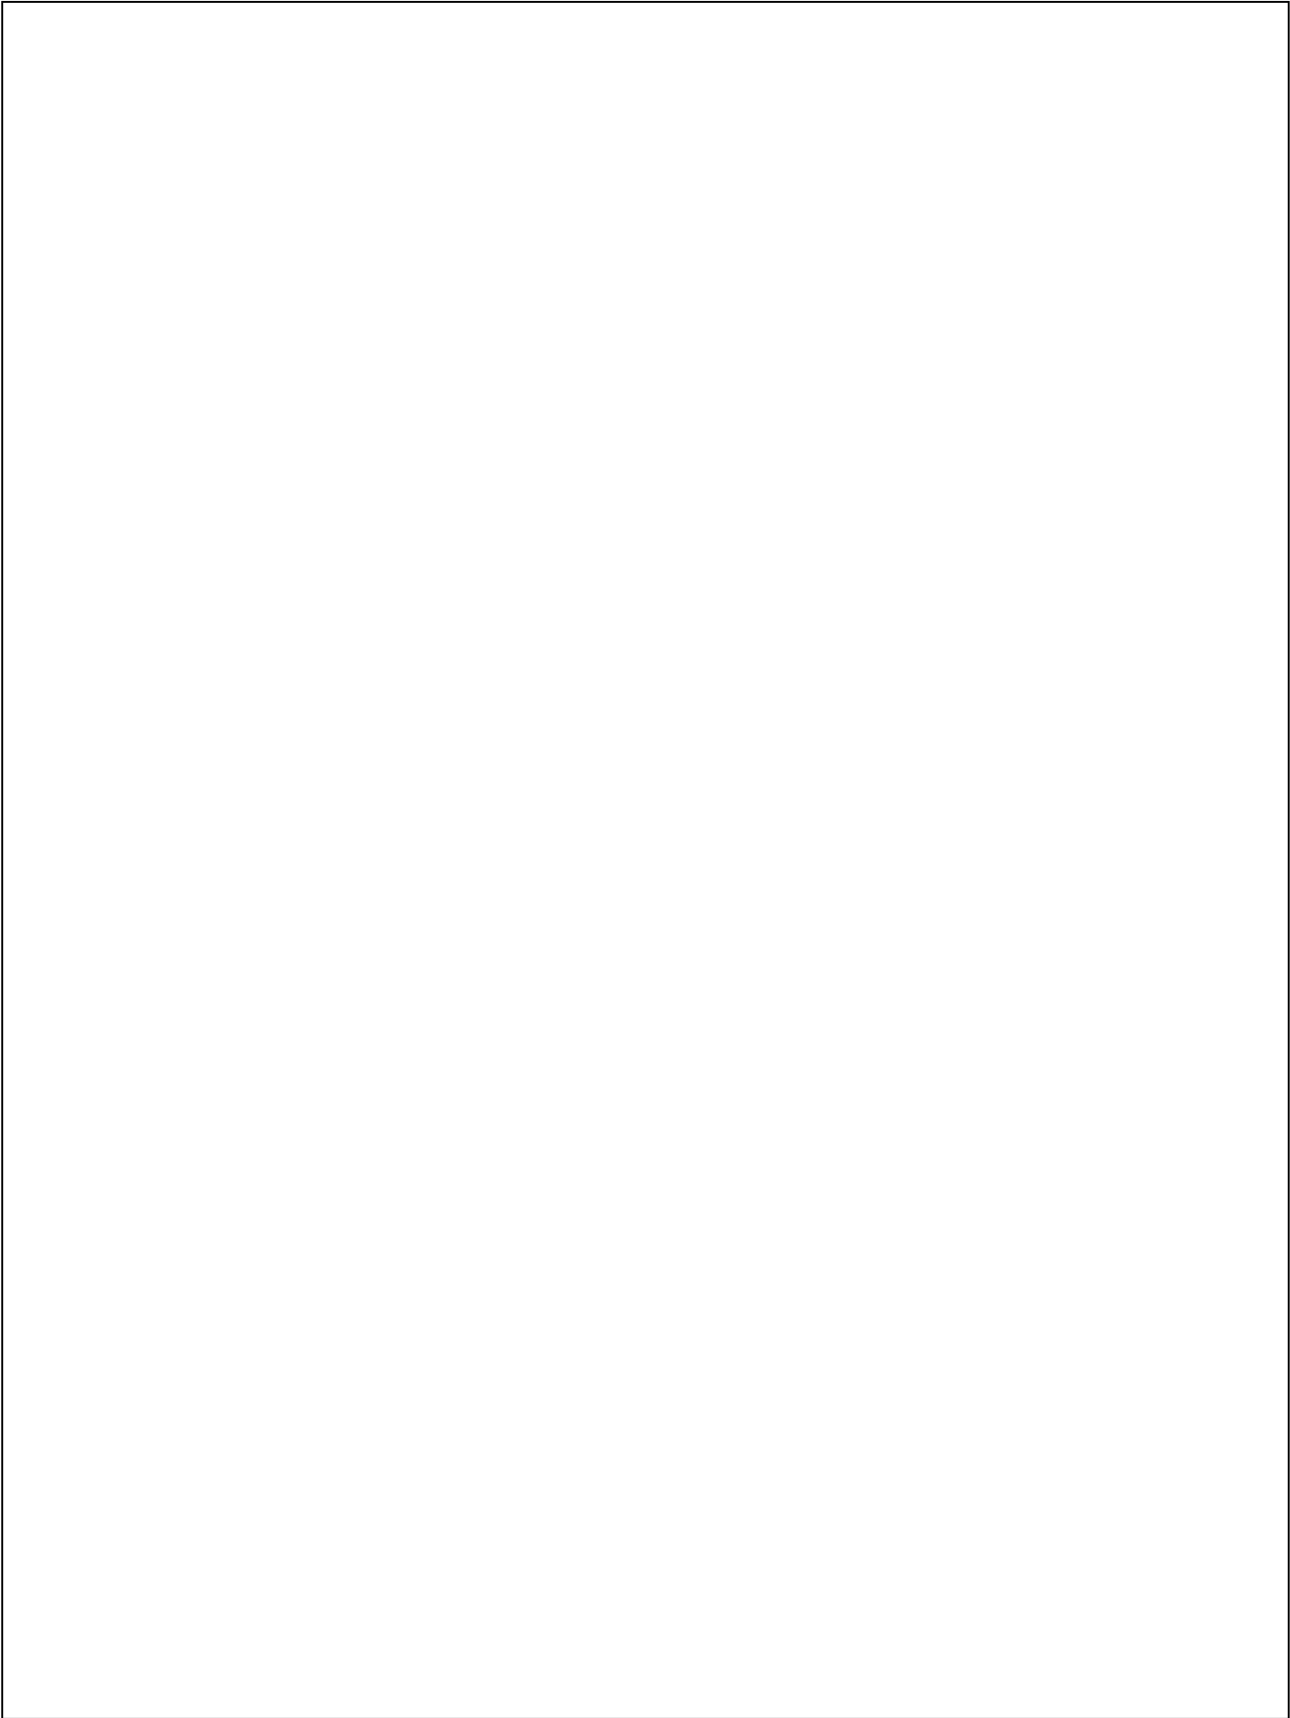

COMPENSATION FOR HER DEATH IS ONE OF THE CONDITIONS FOR THE RESUMPTION OF RELATIONS. THE BRITISH ALSO INSIST THAT LIBYA MUST DEMONSTRATE THAT IT HAS ABANDONED SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM.
